

Private Well Outreach Project Offers Free Water Testing

The Private Well Outreach Project is offering FREE WATER TESTING for radioactivity, iron, and manganese.

Private well owners living in a South Jersey municipalities with a high percentage of private wells with radioactivity are eligible to participate.

Eligible municipalities are highlighted in red on the map below.

Registration is available on a first-come, first-served basis and will close once all slots are filled.

Registration opens at 10am EDT on June 3rd

Register online at:

bit.ly/TestingSouthJersey

Eligible Municipalities:

Atlantic County: Buena Vista, Folsom Borough, Mullica

Burlington County: Pemberton, Shamong, Tabernacle

Camden County: Waterford

Cumberland County: Deerfield, Fairfield, Greenwich, Hopewell, Stow Creek, Upper Deerfield

Gloucester County: Elk, Franklin, Monroe

Salem County: Alloway, Oldmans, Pittsgrove, Upper Pittsgrove

Contact us with questions or for assistance:

jessie.gleason@doh.nj.gov (609-358-3611)

farzana.reza@doh.nj.gov (609-937-7467)

Private Well Outreach Project:

nj.gov/health/ceohs/environmental-occupational/private-well-outreach

This project is funded through a cooperative agreement with the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.